RELIGIOUS NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

The man who is living the life of victory is living the prayer life, because the Spirit is constantly forming in him prayers that are after the will of God, and while he may not be constantly dropping down on his knees, he is in that relation with the Holy Spirit where the prayer is formed in his desire, and as he goes about his business there is the prayer desire that goes out to God. That is the man who gets things from Heaven; whose life is power; that is the man the devil hates, but, thank God, he cannot overcome a soul that has been thus given to God.—Rev. Len. G. Broughton, D. D.

The congregation of the New York
Presbyterian Church was not prepared for the impressive ceremony before the communion service last Sunday. The news had spread that a number of people were to unite with the church, but when the pastor began to read the names the people went forward as their names were called until forty-serven stood before him. Such a scene had not been witnessed in the New York church for many years, but the large number received was not the most unusual thing about it. It did not represent the depletion of other churches, for only ten came by letter. There were eight by reinstatement and iwenty-nine on confession of faith.

The great majority of the new members were adults and did not come into the church just because they were asked and without fully realizing what it meant, for they received thorough instruction for several weeks in a communicants' class. A new class is to be municants' class. A new class is to be organized in January, with a membership probably larger than the last one. Another thing which led up to the large gathering was the series of prayer meetings on Wednesday evenings, the attendence running from any wednesday the pastor commenced a series of about twelve talks on the Epistle to the Romans. Outlines have been printed for the use of those attending the meetings. In all eighty-eight members have been received since the pastor, the Rev. George W. Arms, ir., came last February. The sermon topics to morrow will be: 11 a. m., "The Inner Circle," and 8 p. m., "if."

Bishop Greer takes a novel method of dedicating his permanent home on the case of the direction of Professor Walter Henry Hall. The Rev. Raymond C. Knox, chaplain, will preach at 1 a. m. to-morrow, and the Rev. Samuel Neal Kent at 3 p. m. (children's service) and 8 p. m. there will be an organ recital next Wednesday at 8 p. m. by David McK. Williams.

At St. Paul's Chapel, Columbia University, at 4 p. m. to-morrow there will be held the annual Christmas service. "Ring, Wild Bells," from Tennyson's "In Memoriam," music by Percy E. Fletcher, will be given for the first time in New York. Christmas carols also will be sung. The chapel music is also will be sung. The chapel music is Inner Circle," and 8 p. m., "In"

Rishop Greer takes a novel method of dedicating his permanent home on the Cathedral grounds to the cause of peace. As the head of the Carnegic Church Peace Union plans, he has mivited members of the union to hold their first annual meeting in his spacious house next Wednesday, and it is understood that much of the day will be given up to peace plans. It is also understood that Mr. Carnegie is to attend for some part of the time. In similar ways almost all of the buildings on the grounds, including the Cathedral itself, either have been or will be dedicated to world phases of the greepel.

The union is now at the task of strengthening throughout this country a world alliance of churches for international good will. It is also backing work in England having the same aim for all of Europe and in all churches, Roman and Eastern Catholic included. J. Allen Baker, M. P. has been here for some time in preparation for work abroad. Clergy of the United States are asked to unite, and even South American clergy are included. In spite of the war, preparations are going on for a peace meeting of ministers of France and Germany, Russia and Japan are to be invited, and they are expected. For years before the war ministers of England and Germany had visited back and forth, as recently pointed out by the Rev. Dr. Jowett, of this city, in efforts to bring hetter relations between the empires through the churchs helping the aim.

At the Chapel of the Intercession, At the Chapel of the Intercession, Broadway and 155th st., at 4 p. m. to formative and "Come Unto Me." by Bradeur's and "Come Unto Me." by Bradeur's and the "Paristologist Toccata" in Gand the "Paristologist Toccata" in

He will speak peace unto His people. Righteousness and peace have kissed each Ps. 85; 8, 10.

What is your attitude toward Him? There be plenty who are willing enough to have Him as Priest, who refuse to accept Him as King. But it will not do. He must be King, or He will not be Priest. And He must be King in this order, first making thee right, then giving thee His peace that passeth all understanding. Waste not precious time in paltering, or arguing with Him; accept the situation as it is, and let thy heart be the Salem, the city of Peace, where He, the Priest-King, shall reign for ever. And none is so fit to rule as He who stooped to "In the midst of the throne stood a Lamb as it had been slain" (Rev. 5, 6). The throne is the befitting place for the Man who

His subject is "Doing the Impossible." at Monday's meeting.

The Mayor in introducing Judge Gary "I hope you will be able to do something to lessen in future years the de-gree of unemployment in the community."

Judge Gary said he felt utterly inadequate to fill the position of chairman. "And yet," he continued, "the membership of the committee, by reason of their intelligence and their knowledge of the conditions, gives some hope of being able to do something.
Much has been done for the people across the water, and I would not take one part of that help away," went on the chairman, "but I venture the assertion that there is a great need in this tion that there is a great need in this
